Ad Altiora Scholarship

- Established by a bequest of J.F.T. O’Connor
- Named for an early UND Debating Society
- Awarded to an applicant who has demonstrated outstanding public speaking skills
- Recipient must plan to continue participation in public speaking
Adrian R. Dunn Memorial Scholarship

- Family and friends of UND graduate Adrian R. Dunn, executive director of the North Dakota Education Association who died in 1986, endowed this scholarship.

- This scholarship benefits students with degree programs in journalism and/or political science.
Beulah Rom Gullekson Scholarship

- Beulah Rom Gullekson, a 1936 UND graduate and recipient of the 1995 UND Alumni Association’s Sioux Award, created this award for a communication junior or senior.

- Priority is given to students with an emphasis in public relations.
Charles Burke
Broadcasting Scholarship

- The North Dakota Broadcasters Association dedicated this scholarship honoring Charles G. Burke, a long-time broadcaster and manager of KFGO in Fargo.

- The recipient must be a sophomore or above, maintain a grade point average of 2.0 or above, and intend to pursue a career in radio or television.
Charles “Chuck” Johnson Scholarship

- 1948 UND graduate in journalism
- Sports reporter who covered the Green Bay Packers and the Olympics
- Awarded UND honorary doctorate post mortem
- Scholarship may be awarded to a student interested in sports journalism
Communication Program
Public Relations Scholarship

- Honors Paula Grawe Nelson, a 1971 graduate of University of North Dakota

- Recipient must be a female student committed to a career in public relations
David Beach Memorial Scholarship

- Established in memory of David Beach, UND speech professor and longtime manager of KFJM.
- Beach was also well known as the voice of UND hockey.
- Awarded to a broadcasting student who has worked in radio.
E.E. “Mick” Simmons Memorial Scholarship

- Established in memory of “Mick” Simmons, a 1938 UND graduate who founded the Simmons Flint Advertising Agency.

- Recipient must have an emphasis in advertising and involvement in campus activities.
Ellen Dahl Hill Memorial Scholarship

- This scholarship honors the memory of Ellen Dahl Hill, who dedicated her life to education.

- It is awarded to outstanding communication students who give service to this community.
Frances Leach – Blanche Lynch Memorial Scholarship

- Endowed in 1956 by journalist and teacher Frances Leach to honor her friend, Blanche Lynch
- Recipient of this award must have the promise of distinction based on scholarship, character, leadership, need and interest in journalism as a career
Grace Sorlie and Stella Mann Scholarship

- Ruth Sorlie Edick, a 1939 UND graduate, established this endowment within the UND Foundation in honor and memory of her mother and aunt.

- This generous endowment supports scholarships and priority projects within the Communication Program.

- Pictured, Stella Mann
Grand Forks Herald Scholarship

- This scholarship is supported by the Grand Forks Herald.

- It is awarded to a student with an interest in a print journalism career.
James Kertz Scholarships

- In gratitude for the quality of education James Kertz felt he received at UND, he established this scholarship.

- Recipients must be communication juniors or seniors who are emphasizing print journalism and have an acceptable academic record.
John Hulteng
News Editorial Scholarship

- John L. Hulteng, a 1944 UND graduate, originally established this award.

- Intended for students with an emphasis in journalism who have strong academic performance and the potential for career achievement.
Joseph and Verona Mader Scholarship

- Created by Pulitzer Prize-winning Melvin Ruder, a 1937 UND graduate, to honor Joseph Mader, chair of the journalism department from 1932 to 1936.

- Awarded to a senior communication major with an interest in a career in journalism.
M.M. Oppegard Scholarship

- This first scholarship was set up by the Grand Forks Herald in 1969 and serves as a memorial to M.M. Oppegard, who had been the publisher of the Herald for 40 years.

- The recipient must be a communication junior or senior with an interest in journalism.
Additional M.M. Oppegard Scholarships

- The second of these scholarships was established by Helen Oppegard in honor of her husband.

- This scholarship is awarded to outstanding students in the Communication Program.
Mark L. Carlson
Community Journalism Scholarship

- This award was established by the North Dakota Newspaper Association (NDNA) in recognition of Mark L. Carlson’s devotion to community journalism.

- This gift is intended to support priority projects within the Communication Program, including scholarships to deserving community journalism students.
Mildred Lippincott Memorial Journalism Scholarship

- This scholarship was established to honor Mildred Lippincott, a 1928 graduate who was actively involved in The Dakota Student newspaper and the UND yearbook.

- It is awarded to a student who intends to pursue a career in journalism and demonstrates potential for success in this field.
Mildred Veitch West Memorial Scholarship

- This scholarship was established in 1992 by Mildred Veitch West’s son in appreciation of his mother, a 1912 UND graduate, for her North Dakota roots and her journalism education at UND.

- It goes to a student who has “demonstrated ability and motivation to seek the highest level of achievement.”
Nelson Memorial Journalism Scholarship

- Dorothy Nelson McGregor established the Nelson Memorial Journalism Scholarship Endowment in July 1978 within the UND Foundation in honor of her late brothers, Bruce, Rollis, Herbert, and Quint Nelson.

- McGregor, a native North Dakotan, received a bachelor of arts degree in English and Journalism in 1928 from UND.

- This scholarship is presented annually to a student majoring in journalism at UND.
North Dakota Newspaper Association Scholarship

- The North Dakota Newspaper Association funds this scholarship for students pursuing journalism as a career goal.
- Preference is given to students from North Dakota.
Robert Kunkel Memorial Scholarship

- Established by the National Agri-Marketing Association (NAMA) in honor of 1938 UND graduate Robert S. Kunkel, who helped found the association.

- Award is given to a student who shows academic achievement, moral character, and leadership.
Robert J. Hagen
Memorial Journalism Scholarship

- Colleagues at the Star Tribune in Minneapolis, family, and friends of Bob Hagen, a 1967 UND journalism graduate, established this scholarship in his honor.

- In 1975, Hagen was one of the first ten journalists in the US selected to study at Columbia University under the Knight-Bagehot Fellowship, a prestigious yearlong course of study.
Russell T. Asleson
Memorial Scholarships

• Endowed by and in memory of Russell T. Asleson, 1940 UND journalism graduate

• Presented annually to one or more outstanding Communication Program students with Junior status

• Second annual award this evening
Victor Rose Memorial Scholarship

- Awarded to students majoring in history, communication, or banking/finance

- Based on high academic achievement
Wayne W. Lubenow Memorial Scholarship

- The family, friends, and colleagues of well-known North Dakota journalist and commentator Wayne W. Lubenow established this award in 1991.

- This scholarship is awarded to a junior or senior with an academic career emphasis on writing for print journalism.