Leighton Broadcasting is committed to developing talent and interest in our industry and provides a wide range of internship opportunities for students who may be considering a future in the radio industry. An internship at Leighton Broadcasting can provide you the chance to explore your career interests, acquire marketable job skills while “learning the ropes” of the industry, establish professional contacts and gain practical work experience.

The Leighton Broadcasting Internship Street Team Program offers opportunities in the areas of promotions, event planning, advertising, marketing and more. Our internships offer meaningful educational and work experiences designed to meet the academic and career goals of the intern. Our staff will teach and encourage, but it’s up to the student to bring an enthusiasm to learn. As a member of the Street Team, you can earn $9 an hour during our events.

DUTIES:
1. Plan and execute all aspects of radio station presence on site at an event
2. Contribute Ideas and come up with new ways to promote a station event/giveaway/show/concert
3. Set up and plan station remote broadcast or promotional stop
4. Find cost-effective ways to promote radio stations at events and promotions

Interested students should send their resume to: hcarlson@leightonbroadcasting.com

An internship at Leighton Broadcasting does not secure employment upon graduation.
Work with your favorite radio personalities, see behind the scenes of radio life and learn the ins and outs of Event Marketing and Promotions.
