UND Music Department Facilities Policies
Recital Hall, Loading Dock, and Other Rooms

I. GENERAL AVAILABILITY OF ROOMS

The UND Music Department reserves all of its facilities in the Hughes Fine Arts Center for departmental use above all other priorities. Departmental facilities are available for the use of other University groups and the general public, but rooms scheduled for regular classes, rehearsals and lessons cannot be reserved for conflicting events. Some facilities must be reserved in advance at all times; others may require advance booking at times of high demand. Such reservations will be handled on a first-come, first-served basis after departmental needs have been established.

A. Special Services - Recording, lighting, and ushering/ticket-taking must be arranged in advance and separately contracted with approved personnel. This must be done well in advance.

B. Use of the Bösendorfer piano, green room, or Anna Mae Hughes Reception room, etc. must be specifically arranged at the time of reservation of the hall.

C. Special set-up of the room (tables, chairs, etc.) is the responsibility of the visiting group. Following use, rooms must be returned to their normal condition, as described below.

II. CONDITION OF FACILITIES

A. General Statement

Anyone using the facilities of the UND Music Department must treat the rooms and their contents with respect and must leave the rooms in a neat condition suitable for the next user. Music stands, extra chairs, etc. must be returned to their proper place. Musical instruments must be treated with care. FAILURE TO RESTORE ROOMS TO THEIR PROPER CONDITION MAY RESULT IN DENIAL OF PERMISSION TO USE UND MUSIC DEPARTMENT FACILITIES. DAMAGE TO MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, OTHER EQUIPMENT, OR FACILITIES WILL BE BILLED TO THE RESPONSIBLE PARTY.

B. Reservation of Facilities must be done in the Music Department Office. Those using facilities without prior reservation must yield the room for a reserved use.
