

Winter Haikus

Aubrey Griedl

Preface

Why write some haikus?
Simplicity and structure—
we could use more of.

1. Wind

So frigid and cold,
sharpest winds piercing my face,
sun shining above.

2. Snow

Flurry down snowflakes!
Do not hold back mighty drops
of winter's proud song.

3. Ice

Cover the surface
of the lakes, ponds, and rivers.
Delicate, yet strong.

Afterword

Misunderstood cold,
I revel in your embrace.
Freeze my mismatched thoughts.
