Miguel Castro

I love you with all my heart
And from the bottom of my wallet.
I love you just as you are
But I wish for a few improvements.
If only you had a stronger heart
And a brighter mind.
Your bones have weakened with the rain;
Your feet can hardly feel the earth.
If I had all the money in the world
And the time enough to spare
I would spend every minute and dollar with you,
Working to save you from your age.
But I love you just as you are.
Just take me to work tomorrow,
and we'll go out this weekend.

Miguel Castro is a UND helicopter operations major from Mason, Ohio. He enjoys playing Halo, attending his AFROTC courses, and spending time with friends. He was strongly encouraged to write these poems for his ENGL 226 class and hopes you enjoy reading them!
