- Thank you to Dr. Pugh for everything he has done for me throughout my musical journey in high school and my undergraduate degree.
- Thank you to Anne for the countless hours spent to prepare this literature with me.
- Thank you to the Helfrich and Halliday families who have always been there to help and support me in any way possible.
- Thank you to my fiancée Gabby for always being there for me in the best and the most stressful times.
- Thank you to all staff involved with making this event possible during these difficult times.
- Thank you to Janice, Tammy, and Dena for all the time you've each spent making everything behind-the-scenes work so smoothly.
- Thank you to everyone in the 188th Army Band for providing me so much support, direction and opportunities.
- Thank you to all the professors and peers in the music department who have each guided me on this journey. You have all influenced me so much and without you all it would not have been the great experience that I received.

This recital is in fulfillment of a Bachelor of Music: Music Performance degree.
