Translations

Lux Aurumque

Light,
warm and heavy as pure gold
and the angels sing softly
to the new-born baby.
-Edward Esch/Charles Anthony Silvestri

Tabula Rasa

In my arms, breathe.
Life without limits.
Light of day, dark night.
Sleep, dream, rest in safely.
With your heart, your soul,
listen and know this truth:
Within you are boundless futures
if you are given freedom,
freedom to grow,
freedom to learn,
freedom to touch,
freedom to feel,
freedom to imagine,
freedom to fly,
freedom to love,
freedom to be loved.
-Allison Girvan

Segalariak

It will begin the feast of the harvest,
We are going beyond.

Come the reapers,
cheerful, walking along the path with the intention of working
the wide meadows of Tolosa.

In today's contest
we will know who is the winner,
all crews' friends
they are already waiting to begin.

They have sharpened the scythes
with very sharp stones,
so that they can collect well
all the herbs around the hamlet.

The sound of tambourines, accordion
and the good dancers
recreate the festive atmosphere
in these places.

Our harvest feast
now begin.
Let the harvest feast begins!

We are your children
We love you

Canite tuba in Sion

Sound the trumpets in Zion,
for the day of the Lord is at hand.
Lo, he comes to save us.
The crooked paths will be straight
the rough paths smooth.
Come, Lord, and do not delay.

Drop down dew, heavens, from above,
and let the clouds rain down the Just One.
Let the earth be opened
and bud forth a Savior.
Show us, O Lord, your mercy,
and grant us your salvation.
Come, Lord, and do not delay.

Cantate domino

Sing ye to the Lord a new song,
sing and bless His name
for He has worked wonders.

Sing and exult and make music,
strike the lyres and let voices sing,
for He has worked wonders.
-Psalm 98
